A RUNAWAY TRAIN

Four Freight Cars Loaded With Ore Are Reduced to Painted Kindling.

Eureka, Oct. 10.—Four San Pedro freight cars loaded with ore ran away from the yard in Mammoth early this morning, and piled up in a cut on a curve near the crossing of the Mammoth branch with the county road, over a hill below the depot. The cars had been set out on the main track while the crew of the San Pedro freight was doing some necessary switching. Conductor Peterson jumped the runaway and attempted to stop the brakes by hand, when the stick which is ordinarily used to twist the brakes broke, and he made a getaway. Half a mile down the track the four cars almost ran over the section gang and went over the Rio Grande crossing at a fast clip, but kept the track. The grade is very steep on this crossing to the main line of the Twelfth branch, and by the time the cut was reached the train was fairly flying. The four cars left the track and piled up into a mass of twisted iron and splintered lumber, the wheels of the cars badly damaged, and there will be little of value left. Two of the cars were loaded with ore from the Ajax mine at Mammoth, and two with iron ore from the Mammoth mine. The passenger train on the San Pedro was unable to reach Mammoth, and the passengers and mail were transferred. It is expected that the track will be cleared this afternoon.

HOLD-UP WAS FOILED.

Jack Scofield Puts Him to Flight With a Couple of Shots. Park City, Oct. 10.—Last night an attempted hold-up was made below the Rio Grande Western depot, when a masked man ordered Jack Scofield to hold up his hands. Instead of obeying the orders of the footpad, Scofield drew a revolver and took a couple of shots at the fleeing robber. Nothing more serious resulted from the affair. During the past year Park City people have been suffering all the inconveniences of dusty streets, and when they happened to be a rain to wash the dirt off the streets, it was a relief. Now that election approaches, the summer has gone and the ground about to freeze up, the city authorities have decided that the streets need cleaning, and accordingly there is a gang of men working on the streets. There was an all around rough time in town last night. In Mosher's saloon E. G. Wilson became over-eloquent as a result of whisky and after a few remarks of a very vulgar nature, succeeded in getting his head pounded as a result. In M. Condon's saloon James Reilly became boisterous over the fact that Condon denied payment of a bill that was owing to him by Reilly, and Condon proceeded to protect himself and his house with a gun. One shot was fired, but no one was hurt. Mrs. Igleheart and family came up to Park this morning and took the stage for Heber. Miss Rothwell was a Park City passenger this morning. Mrs. Colonel W. M. Ferry was the hostess this morning at an elaborate breakfast. Sixteen guests were present, eight of whom came up from Salt Lake. They were: Mrs. Cleson S. Kinney, Mrs. G. R. Hancock, Mrs. E. B. Critchlow, Mrs. William C. Jensen, Mrs. V. A. Nelson, Mrs. A. Vincent, C. C. Moore and Mrs. Van Arman. Miss Minnie Kessel, who has been visiting in Salt Lake, returned this morning, accompanied by Miss Roddy of Salt Lake, who will spend a few days in Park. Mrs. Margaret Donovan of Ogden came to Park this morning on a short visit.

BIG FLOW OF WATER.

The Prospects of Soon Striking Oil in Quantity Very Flattering. Mt. Pleasant, Oct. 10.—Officials and stockholders of the Mt. Pleasant Oil & Gas company are highly elated this morning over a report made to the board of directors of the company at a meeting held last night, by President A. J. Scott, who has charge of the operations of the boring machine at the well. Mr. Scott stated that the flow of water found in the well some days ago as to the quantity, and finds that there is an almost inexhaustible supply of it in the well. He attempted to pump it out as fast as it ran into the well, but notwithstanding he forced a large stream to the surface he could make no perceptible difference in the amount flowing in at the bottom. In Mr. Scott's judgment there is water enough to be found in that immediate vicinity, by putting down a few more wells, to thoroughly irrigate the entire upper end of Sanpete county, and he says that the value of the water now in sight is sufficient to insure the future financial success of the undertaking. He also finds, as he goes down, that the formation under the surface is exactly as foretold by the expert who located the well. So well pleased is Mr. Scott, in fact, with the outlook, that he has offered to take the entire share of the oil off the hands of the local company, meeting all its obligations and agreeing to sink the well himself, if they do not care to continue the work. The company is more anxious than ever, however, to follow its line of action as proposed originally and as partly carried out, and will prosecute the work with renewed energy. The board of directors is now so confident of ultimately reaching oil and so greatly encouraged.

Mrs. George H. Marshall returned today from a month's trip to Illinois, where he has been visiting his family.

A large shipment of fish was received in this city today from the state fish hatchery in Salt Lake City. The fish were consigned to the city and to local parties who have private ponds. Those for the city were turned over to the local gun club, which will plant them in the waters of Pleasant and Twin creeks and in Sanpete river.

John H. Seely and James P. Jensen, Mt. Pleasant's two principal thoroughbred stock growers, returned yesterday from the State fair with their cattle, sheep, etc. The two gentlemen carried off nearly all the first and second prizes for which they had entries and are seemingly satisfied with the results of the trip. The sales which the two gentlemen have made, and which are, of course, the point aimed at in making stock exhibits at the fair, are of considerable magnitude and importance. Mr. Seely has already sold three carloads of his celebrated thoroughbred and graded buck sheep as a result of the display made by him during the week in Salt Lake, one carload going to Colorado, one to New Mexico and a third to southern Utah. The first went to John Walters of Denver, the second to a Mr. Jones of New Mexico, and the Utah car to the Cedar City Sheep Growing company. It is understood that the sheep brought top prices and netted Mr. Seely a fancy sum. He still has a good bunch of the same kind left, which are being looked after by himself or buyers. Mr. Jensen sold every hoof of his fancy sheep before leaving the fair grounds, setting his own price for them. He could probably have disposed of more had he been there.

F. C. Jensen and E. C. Johnson returned from Pueblo yesterday, where they had been with a trainload of sheep. They had disposed of all but a couple of carloads, belonging to Peter Mortensen, which were taken by their owner to Kansas City in hopes of finding a better market. The sheep sold by Messrs. Jensen and Johnson, belonging to themselves and N. S. Nielsen, were sold at good figures.

A 16-year-old son of Judge Jacob Johnson of Spring City was thrown from a horse which he was riding last evening, sustaining a broken collarbone in the accident.

Mrs. Peter Monson, sr., of this city is very sick at her home. The infirmities of old age are responsible.

A number of the friends of Miss Bertie Madsen tendered her a very successful surprise party at her home Thursday evening.

BUSINESS MEN ALERT.

Decide to Make a Move Toward Advertising Their City.

Provo, Oct. 10.—The Provo Business Men's association held a meeting last evening, at which it was decided to make some vigorous efforts to awaken the community to the realization of what it could and should do, and then arouse sufficient enthusiasm among the members to do it.

President Barney, Vice President Taft, C. F. Decker, Alex Hedquist and several other operators favored obtaining a club room, where visiting business men and other prominent visitors could be entertained, and L. O. Taft, Alex Hedquist and C. F. Decker were appointed a committee to investigate the matter of securing suitable quarters. The committee will report at the next meeting, which will be held on the evening of the 16th. At that time the matter of giving a grand ball some time in the near future will also be considered.

President Barney urged that the association take the initiative in effecting country fair association, by interest business men in Provo and other Utah county towns in the project. This matter will also receive further consideration.

Mr. Howe brought up the Telluride Power company franchise question. He was of the opinion that the company should be granted the franchise as it appeared to him a reasonable request from the company, which was spending a great amount of money in the city.

City Councilman Decker, who opposed granting the franchise in the council, except the company paid a small annual rental for the privilege, and accepted the franchise subject to the future action of the council, explained his position and said that he was still of the same opinion as when he cast his vote in the council against passing the franchise over the mayor's veto.

City Councilman Taylor, who voted to grant the franchise over the mayor's veto, stated that at the meeting when the matter came up there were not enough of the council present to pass the motion over the objection of the mayor, but he believes that if the matter was brought up again the franchise would be granted.

The Telluride company asked for a franchise to erect a pole line through a street from the city limits to its center for the purpose of connecting its private telephone line between Logan and Provo with the central office here.

A FISTIC ENCOUNTER.

(Special to The Herald.)

Park City, Oct. 10.—A lively fight took place this afternoon on Main street in front of the saloon of Downing & Colemans. The trouble started over a dispute between Bob McElroy and Murty McElroy and as the latter became abusive Bob McElroy struck him in the face with his fist. Warrants for arrest were sworn out, both men arrested and taken before Judge Lockhart, who dismissed the case until Monday morning, when they will answer to a charge of assault and battery.

THEY FEAR EXPLOSIONS.

Much Gas Escaping From Mines, But the Smoke Has Abated.

(Special to The Herald.)

Eureka, Oct. 10.—Harry Joseph has employed sixty men from the force laid off at the four mines, on account of the underground fires, to build a route for the La Reine Mining company, and is paying them miners' wages, but preference is given to married men. The job will last about three weeks and by that time, if not before, it is expected that the mines will be in condition to resume work. The fire helmets with which an effort is to be made to reach the fire, the Miller-Caboon company have not yet arrived, and the pine shaft remains closed. There is still a great deal of gas escaping, but no smoke. On account of the awful nature of the country danger from the fire is anticipated. The Gemini shaft has been bulkheaded about forty feet below the fire, and the management will take advantage of the enforced shut-down to put in new cribbing from the bulkhead to the top.

POLITICS IN SANPETE.

Both Parties Lining Up For Municipal Battles.

Ephraim, Oct. 9.—Politics is commencing to warm up in this town, the center of the stage in Sanpete county. In this city the Republicans are showing signs of life and are electing their entire ticket this fall. The Democrats are working and feel confident that they will win out at the coming municipal election.

The Republicans have called their convention to nominate a municipal ticket for Oct. 16. Among those mentioned for mayor are Alfred Dahl, Peter Petersen and Andrew Thompson, jr.; councilmen, J. P. Christensen, Joseph E. Andersen and Andrew Thompson, jr.; treasurer, James Frost, jr.; and for marshal, Parley Hansen, the present incumbent; Peter Mortensen, Henry Olin and Thursday are mentioned.

The Democrats will probably meet on the 17th, but the exact date has not been set. The only candidate mentioned for mayor is James P. Christensen, the present incumbent. For the council the names of James Armstrong, N. O. Andersen, J. E. Hansen, Alfred Dahl, Peter Petersen, and Andrew Thompson are mentioned, while for marshal, Rasmus Hansen, N. O. Mortensen and Andrew N. Hansen are the names. Treasurer, F. Jensen. Not a candidate on either side has been mentioned for the position of recorder or justice.

The Fountain Green Republicans met this week and named the following town ticket: H. C. Hansen, both town president; H. P. Olsen, jr., Edward Draper, John A. Holman and John E. Hansen, trustees. The Democrats will not name a ticket, as this burg is the holdout of the Republican ticket.

Moreno has two men mentioned for mayor on the Republican ticket, Ephraim Nelson and Ephraim Andersen, while the Democrats will nominate John Christensen for mayor, Isaac Morley and John Frantzen are candidates for marshal on the Democratic ticket. Mart Bradley is out for the marshalship, J. E. Knapp is running for recorder, and F. Jensen for treasurer on the Republican ticket. There is, however, a feeling among some of the younger Republicans to nominate a younger man for mayor than those mentioned. The executive committee will meet this week and fix the time and place for holding primaries.

NOMINATE CITY TICKET.

Citizens of Vernal Meet in Mass Convention.

Vernal, Oct. 4.—A mass convention of the voters of Vernal City was held in the district court room at the county building last night and a city ticket nominated. The convention, which was well attended, was presided over by State Senator Harden Bention.

The feature of the evening was the contest for the office of city marshal, there being eight aspirants for the position.

For the city council it was all the other way, and at least a dozen names were presented and many declarations followed before the necessary number was secured.

The present mayor, Leslie Ashton, had no opposition in the convention and his name was allowed to go through by acclamation under a suspension of the rules. The treasurer and recorder were also elected by acclamation. The ticket is as follows:

Mayor, Leslie Ashton; council, four-year term, H. C. Hansen, both years term, R. B. Bennion, Isaac Burton, Parley Ford and Richard Jensen; treasurer, George A. Taylor; recorder, E. H. Belcher; justice, Dan H. Hillman; marshal, Fred Wood. There is talk on the streets of another ticket being placed in the field.

There has been somewhat of a scrap on in the city council over the license to Harry Yarnell for the present quarter. Yarnell is proprietor of the Little Chicago saloon and has been granted a license to sell beer on the ground that it was a disorderly place. The other faction contended that no cause had been shown why Yarnell should not be treated the same as anyone else, and the result has been that considerable feeling has been engendered in the matter. Councilman S. P. Trim has handed in his resignation as a result of the affair. The matter will be something of an issue in the election.
